

What is the Keystone State Literacy Association?

The Keystone State Literacy Association (KSLA) is the Pennsylvania State Affiliate of the International Literacy Association (ILA). KSLA is comprised of individuals who are engaged in reading instruction, literacy development, and the encouragement of lifelong reading habits.

KSLA Mission Statement

Inspiring educators to promote literacy within and beyond the classroom.

KSLA Vision Statement

All children will know the joy and success that comes from literacy.

What Are the Membership Benefits?

- Wednesday Webinars on various literacy topics
- Teachers As Readers monthly book discussions
- Online literacy resources
- Subscription to Pennsylvania Reads (yearly publication)
- Opportunity to join statewide literacy task forces
- Professional networking
- Grant opportunities
- Discounted registration to annual conference
- Local chapter membership with access to many more professional learning offerings and resources

How Do I Become a Member?

Becoming a member is easy! Visit our website or send us an email and we'll provide further details. You can also scan the QR code for a direct link to our membership page.

<https://ksla.wildapricot.org/kslamembership@gmail.com>

Students
$15

Retirees
$20

Current Educators
$40

What Does My Local Chapter Provide?

In addition to being a part of KSLA at the statewide level, members are also automatically granted membership in their local chapter. Local chapters provide additional professional learning experiences, resources, and outreach projects within each member's geographical location.

KSLA currently has 23 chapter affiliates. For more information about KSLA's local chapters, visit the link below or scan the QR code:

[https://ksla.wildapricot.org/
Chapters](https://ksla.wildapricot.org/Chapters)

Connect With Us!

<https://ksla.wildapricot.org/>
kslamembership@gmail.com

@keystonestateliteracy

@keystonestateliteracy

@kslaliteracy

Be a part of the

Keystone State Literacy Association

Leaders in Literacy for the Commonwealth